- 1. Fire;
- 2. Flood;
- 3. Tornado;
- 4. Hurricane;
- 5. Earthquake; or
- 6. Other disasters considered on a case-by-case basis.

B. Incidents not covered, with the exception of clothing and food assistance for Muscogee (Creek) children in the home, include the following;

- 1. Meth lab fires
- 2. Gross Negligence; or
- 3. Arson/vandalism.

~~BC.~~ Payment will be made directly to the vendor upon submission (by the applicant) of vendor's price quote for furniture, apartment rental/deposits, appliances, other essential home furnishings, or emergency shelter costs. Reimbursement costs will be allowed to be payable to the Tribal citizens for emergency shelter costs incurred prior to application upon presentation of receipts. Disaster must have occurred within one (1) year of application date.

~~CD.~~ A voucher will be issued for groceries and clothing. The following documentation is required:

1. Verification of Muscogee (Creek) citizenship for all applicable household members. Driver's license/ID or birth certificate will be accepted for non-native household members;
2. Copy of social security card for all household members;
3. Residence verification;
4. Vendor quote(s) when applicable; and
5. Documentation of disaster, example: fire report, landlord statements, weather report, emergency management statement, police report, pictures of disaster, etc.
6. Identification documents and social security cards may be waived on a case-by-case basis, however, individual eligibility may be affected.

~~DE.~~ This assistance may be utilized by the applicant in addition to other forms of assistance whether by federal, state or local service agencies for disaster relief. Households may be eligible for assistance up to Seven Thousand, Five Hundred and No/100 dollars ($7,500.00) per fiscal year as follows:
